Delcan appoints Dr. Cheryl-Marie Hansberger as Corporate Vice President, Strategic Development

Los Angeles, CA, October 24, 2007 -- Delcan, an award winning, multi-disciplinary engineering, management and technology consulting firm is pleased to announce that Dr. Cheryl-Marie Hansberger has been appointed to the position of Corporate Vice President of its newly formed Corporate Strategic Development Group.

Delcan Corporation has enjoyed considerable growth during the past three years and is on track to exceed our growth targets for the 2007 fiscal year. To ensure Delcan has the internal infrastructure necessary to successfully manage this growth, while still maintaining excellent customer service, delivering quality solutions, and attracting and retaining top-notch personnel, the corporation is investing in senior management staff who will deliver on these strategies. Dr. Hansberger, one of Delcan's Vice Presidents, will play a critical leadership role in these new endeavors. In her new role, Dr. Hansberger will be primarily responsible for Delcan's promotions, community & government relations, professional development efforts, and strategic initiatives, company-wide. Prior to her appointment to this new position, Dr. Hansberger served as the Vice President of Strategic Development for Delcan's Systems Business in the US.

"Cheryl-Marie is an invaluable member of our senior management team. Her promotion to the position of Corporate Vice President is a testament to her leadership and commitment to achieving business success as well as promoting staff accomplishments within Delcan. This is a critical milestone in Delcan history as we embark on geographic and market expansion as well as product innovation. I am delighted to offer my congratulations to Cheryl-Marie and look forward to working closely with her to realize the aggressive strategic goals that we will be striving to achieve" said Dr. Jeneane Prince, Chief Operating Officer for Corporate Strategic Development at Delcan.

Delcan, founded in 1953 and operating globally, serves a multi-disciplinary client base by focusing on meeting client needs and expectations. Delcan offers innovative infrastructure and systems solutions that combine high-quality with cost-effectiveness. Please visit us at www.delcan.com
